Community Foundation of West Georgia Announces

2025 Community Impact Grant Recipients

Carrollton, GA - The Community Foundation of West Georgia is pleased to announce the recipients of its 2025 Community Impact Grants. This year, the Foundation is granting over $315,000 to support nonprofit organizations across Carroll, Haralson, and Heard counties. These grants strengthen local efforts in Art & Culture, Education, Environment, and Social Services, advancing programs that enrich lives and build a stronger region.

"Our nonprofit partners continue to respond to needs with creativity, compassion, and dedication," said Kim Jones, President of the Community Foundation of West Georgia. "The projects funded this year reflect what makes West Georgia remarkable — people coming together to support one another and create a brighter future."

A Shared Investment in Our Community's Future

These grants are made possible through the generosity of donors and fundholders who give through the Community Foundation. Their commitment ensures that resources remain available to meet local needs—today and for years to come.

"We are deeply grateful for the individuals, families, and businesses who choose to invest in their community through the Foundation," Jones said. "Your generosity expands opportunities, supports stability, and helps build a stronger West Georgia for everyone."

The Community Foundation invites others who share this commitment to join in the work. Whether by establishing a charitable fund, contributing to community grantmaking, or collaborating on shared priorities, every partnership strengthens the place we call home.
