The Community Foundation of West Georgia Prepares for "On the Table 2024" – A Community-Wide Conversation Initiative

The Community Foundation of West Georgia is preparing for their much-anticipated "On the Table" event, an initiative designed to bring diverse voices together for meaningful conversations about the future of our community.

On the Table 2024 aims to foster open dialogue, cultivate new ideas, and inspire collaborative action. The event will focus on key community issues such as affordable housing, economic development, etc. Participants will have the opportunity to share their perspectives, learn from their neighbors, and propose solutions to enhance our community's well-being.

On the Table 2024 is scheduled to take place February 6th-8th. The Community Foundation is pleased to announce multiple public table locations, making it easy for every community member to participate.

Some of the organizations hosting open tables and their topics are:

- Carroll County Family Connection - Open Forum for Parents of Children with Mental Health Issues
- City of Tallapoosa (with Journey Realty and The Union on Odessa) - Downtown Dynamics: Paving the Way for Vibrant Growth and Development
- Haralson County Family Connection - Feeding Haralson County's Kids! Happy Helpings Summer Food Program
- Julie Coppinger - Bridging the Divide: Spiritual Approaches to Poverty
- Keep Carroll Beautiful - Clean Futures: Tackling Litter Head-On for a Greener Tomorrow
- Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum - Preserving Legacy, Igniting Future: The Importance of Cultural Conservation
- Villa Rica Public Library - Health and Home: Breaking Barriers to Accessible Care and Affordable Housing
- West Georgia Domestic Violence Shelter - Understanding Domestic Violence and the Temporary Protective Order
- Your Haven - Bridging Hope: A Conversation about Transitional Needs in Our Community

These open tables can be found on their website, cfwg.net/findatable. Participants are encouraged to register in advance. This will help hosts plan an effective and successful table.

All residents of West Georgia are invited to come together for these powerful conversations. Your voice is essential in shaping the future of our community. Together, let's make On the Table 2024 a milestone event in bringing about positive change and strengthening the bonds within our community.
